THE NEW YORK TIMES undertakes to criticize the course of Mr. Douglas, in voting for the Crittenden amendment, and points out that Mr. Douglas voted first for the Missouri Compromise, next for intervention.

THE TIME thinks Senator Douglas has been inconsistent. This simply shows the utter ignorance of the New York Times in relation to the slavery question, and is an explanation of its blunders in other matters.

THE MISSOURI COMPROMISE, as all know who read, was proposed to be extended by Congress, in order that a framer basis might be established to continue through all time, the object being to prevent further interference on that subject by that body.

STATE CONVENTION

OF THE UNION DEMOCRATIC.

HELD JANUARY 5, 1861,

At Concert Hall, Louisville, Kentucky.

The Democratic Union Convention

assembled at Concert Hall at noon yesterday. Mr. John D. Cochran, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order, and was elected temorary Chairman.

A resolution requiring the Committees on

Resolutions to report a resolution demanding a repeal of all laws conflicting with the Confederate States Law, was adopted.

Mr. Lewis E. Harvie and V. B. Carter

were chosen temporary secretaries.

T. B. Poindexter moved the appointment of a Committee on permanent organization, to consist of one from each Congressional District. The following gentlemen composed the Committee:

Mr. J. C. Crittenden, of Louisville;

Mr. J. P. Miller, of Jefferson;

Mr. J. V. Young, of Louisville;
